

Audiocast Options and Fees for 2012

The Conference of Consulting Actuaries' ("CCA") Board of Directors approved the below outlined fee structure for 2012 audiocasts sponsored by CCA.

Individuals – One Attendee On One Phone in One Location

Single Audiocast or Season Subscription

	Fees For 2012
Single Audiocast
CCA Member	$125
Academy/CIA/CONAC Member	$185
Non-CCA/Academy/CIA/CONAC Member	$225
US Federal Government Employee	$62.50
Season Subscription
CCA Member	$500
Academy/CIA/CONAC Member	$1,000
Non-CCA/Academy/CIA/CONAC Member	$1,200
US Federal Government Employee	Not Available

Individual Process

Registration: The attendee must register with the CCA. To register for a single audiocast or for a season subscription, please use the CCA Audiocast Registration Form and submit the appropriate payment through the CCA Online Store. If the registration for a season subscription occurs after any audiocasts have occurred in a given year, the full season subscription price will be payable for the remaining audiocasts (i.e., there will be no credits or discounts). Confirmations will be automatically generated through the website at registration.

CCA Member Rate: The attendee must be a CCA member for the current year to qualify for the CCA member rate.

Academy/CIA/CONAC Member Rate: The attendee must be a member of the American Academy of Actuaries, Canadian Institute of Actuaries, or CONAC for the current year to qualify for the Academy/CIA/CONAC member rate.

US Federal Government Employee Rate: The attendee must be a US Federal government employee for the current year to qualify for the government rate.

Season Subscription: Includes all scheduled and late breaking presentations.

Call-in Instructions: An e-mail will be forwarded to the attendee, generally on the Monday before the audiocast, containing a PDF version of the presentation, call-in instructions, and a link to request a personalized PIN that allows the attendee to connect to the call through the conferencing service.

Certificate of Attendance: Approximately one week after the audiocast, the attendee will receive a certificate of attendance and, for CCA members, information related to their attendance will be entered on www.ActuarialCPD.org (the CCA's continuing education tracking tool).*

Cancellation Policy: Cancellations for a single audiocast received in writing within one week prior to the audiocast will be refunded the full fee minus a $50 processing fee. After that date, no refunds will be available. There are no cancellations or credits on unused season subscriptions.

*Note that issuance of a certificate of attendance only acknowledges that the individual registered for the audiocast. Acceptance of the certificate acknowledges that the individual is aware of and agrees to uphold the "Code of Professional Conduct."

To purchase a subscription as an individual for the 2012 CCA audiocast series, please click here.

To purchase a company-based subscription for the 2012 CCA audiocast series, please contact the CCA office at 847-719-6500.

Audiocast Options and Fees for 2012

Groups – Three or More Attendees On One Phone in One Location

	Fees For 2012
Single Audiocast
CCA Members	$300
Academy/CIA/CONAC Member	$450
Non-CCA/Academy/CIA/CONAC Members	$600
US Federal Government Employee	$150
Season Subscription	Not Available
Group Process
Registration: The organizer at each group location (who may or may not be an attendee) must register with the CCA. To register for the audiocast, please use the CCA Audiocast Registration Form and submit the appropriate payment through the CCA Online Store. Confirmations will be automatically generated through the website at registration. CCA Member Rate: The attendee must be a CCA member for the current year to qualify for the CCA member rate. Academy/CIA/CONAC Member Rate: The attendee must be a member of the American Academy of Actuaries, Canadian Institute of Actuaries, or CONAC for the current year to qualify for the Academy/CIA/CONAC member rate. US Federal Government Employee Rate: The attendee must be a US Federal government employee for the current year to qualify for the government rate. Call-in Instructions: An e-mail will be forwarded to the organizer, generally on the Monday before the audiocast, containing a PDF version of the presentation, call-in instructions, and a link to request a personalized PIN that allows the group to connect to the call through the conferencing service for use with one telephone line in one location. Certificates of Attendance for CCA Members: If requested by the organizer, all CCA members will receive certificates of attendance* and attendance will be entered on www.ActuarialCPD.org (the CCA’s continuing education tracking tool). If certificates of attendance* are requested, the organizer must provide a list of CCA member attendees to CCA within two weeks after the audiocast. Other Continuing Education Credits: If requested by the organizer, the CCA will issue certificates of attendance* for up to two non-Conference members as part of the registration fee. Additional non-Conference member certificates of attendance* are available for non-members at a cost of $25 per nonmember. If certificates of attendance* are requested, the organizer must provide a list of non-CCA member attendees to CCA within two weeks after the audiocast. The organizer is responsible for all non-CCA members’ recordkeeping and managing CPD credits. The organizer may also choose to be responsible for all recordkeeping and managing CPD credits (CCA members and non-members). Certificate of Attendance Fees: Fees for non-CCA member certificates are due within two weeks of billing and prior to the release of certificates. Cancellation Policy: Cancellations received in writing within one week prior to the audiocast will be refunded the full fee minus a $50 processing fee. After that date, no refunds will be available.

* Note that issuance of a certificate of attendance only acknowledges that individuals within a group have registered for the audiocast. Acceptance of the certificate by an individual acknowledges that they are aware of and agree to uphold the “Code of Professional Conduct.”

To purchase a subscription as an individual for the 2012 CCA audiocast series, please click here.

To purchase a company-based subscription for the 2012 CCA audiocast series, please contact the CCA office at 847-719-6500.

Audiocast Options and Fees for 2012

Company Season Subscription* – All Locations for a Single Company

	Fees For 2012
Companies That Support the CCA (“Companies” includes firms, partnerships and other similar organizations. “Support” includes through CCA membership of individuals employed by the company, through providing several speakers at CCA events and audiocasts, and other similar actions. “Individuals employed by the company” also includes those individuals who own the company.)	The fees for a company-wide season subscription are based on the number of US-based credentialed actuaries employed by the company reduced by the number of such actuaries who are CCA members to arrive at a Season Subscription fee specific to each company. The fee is $50 per US-based credentialed actuary, less $50 per US-based CCA member*, subject to a minimum of $12,000 and a maximum of $50,000.*
All Other Companies	Not available
Season Subscription Process
Registration: By the middle of January, the company’s contact person should call the CCA to establish themselves as the contact person for the company. One alternate contact person should also be designated. It is assumed that the appropriate fee is paid by the middle of January. Call-in Instructions: One call-in line will be provided to the contact person who will bridge the call-in line to the company’s internal conference call line. Individuals at the company attending the audiocast may call into the company’s internal conference call line. The company will be responsible for coordinating the attendance of individuals or groups. An e-mail will be forwarded to the contact person, generally on the Monday before the audiocast, containing a PDF version of the presentation, call-in instructions, and a link to request the personalized PIN that will allow the contact person to connect to the call through the conferencing service. Certificates of Attendance for CCA Members: If requested by the contact person, all CCA members will receive a certificate of attendance and attendance will be entered on the CCA’s continuing education tracking tool. If certificates of attendance are requested, the contact person should provide a list of attendees to CCA within two weeks after the audiocast. Certificates of Attendance for Nonmembers: If requested by the contact person, the CCA will issue certificates of attendance at a cost of $25 per non-member. If certificates of attendance are requested, the contact person should provide a list of attendees to CCA within two weeks after the audiocast. The company is responsible for all nonmembers’ recordkeeping and managing CPD credits. The company may also choose to be responsible for all recordkeeping and managing CPD credits for all of its attendees (CCA members and non-members). Fees: Fees for non-CCA member certificates are due within one week of billing and prior to the release of certificates. Subscription fees should be submitted by the middle of January. Companies send a check to CCA’s offices instead of using the CCA Online Store. Cancellation Policy: There are no cancellations or credits on unused company season subscriptions.

* Late breaking presentations are also included.

** Note that issuance of a certificate of attendance only acknowledges that individuals within a group have registered for the audiocast. Acceptance of the certificate by the individual acknowledges that they are aware of and agree to uphold the “Code of Professional Conduct.”

*** This process has been previously tested, but the company must have adequate capacity on its internal conference call line to provide adequate access to all of their individuals who plan to attend the audiocast.

**** Based on members as of November prior to season assuming no material changes in membership counts or at any time during the season.

To purchase a company-based subscription for the 2012 CCA audiocast series, please contact the CCA office at 847-719-6500.